REMEMBER THE PARISH IN YOUR WILL

Remember the Parish of Our Saviour, St. Stephen—Our Lady of the Scapular, and the Chapel of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary in your will. If you would like to speak to a gift planning specialist about how to include the Parish in your will or living trust, call (646) 794-3317 or <plannedgiving@archny.org>.

SUMMER

While many of our own parishioners travel during the summer months, we have the opportunity to welcome visitors from many lands. For those traveling, please stay in touch with the parish through our website and Facebook pages. Please be mindful that parish expenses continue as usual during the summer and that we rely upon the generosity of parishioners and visitors alike. If you don't do so already, would you consider supporting the parish using WeShare? It will ensure that the parish receives your sacrificial offering throughout the year.

If you are traveling, be sure to incorporate Sunday Mass into your travel plans. The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation is not lifted when we are on vacation.

ON BAPTISM

[Baptism is] an effective sign of rebirth, in order to walk in the newness of life. Saint Paul reminds the Christians of Rome about this: "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Romans 6:3-4).

By immersing us in Christ, Baptism also makes us members of his Body, which is the Church, and sharers in her mission in the world (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1213). We baptized are not isolated: we are members of the Body of Christ. The vitality which springs forth from the baptismal font is illustrated by these words of Jesus: "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit" (John 15:5). A selfsame life, that of the Holy Spirit, flows from Christ to the baptized, uniting them in one Body (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:13), anointed by the holy unction and nourished at the Eucharistic table.

Baptism allows Christ to live in us and allows us to live united with him, to cooperate in the Church, each according to his or her condition, for the transformation of the world. Received only once, the baptismal bath illuminates our whole life, guiding our steps all the way to the Heavenly Jerusalem. There is a before and an after to Baptism. The Sacrament presumes a journey of faith, which we call catechumenate, evident when it is an adult requesting Baptism. But from antiquity, children, too, have been baptized in the faith of their parents (cf. Rite of Baptism for Children, Introduction, 2).

No one can earn Baptism, which is always a gift freely given to all, adults and infants. But as it happens for a seed full of life, this gift takes root and bears fruit in a soil nourished by faith. The baptismal promises that we renew each year in the Easter Vigil must be rekindled every day so that Baptism may "christify": we must not be afraid of this word; Baptism "christifies". Those who have received Baptism and are "christified"; they resemble Christ, are transformed in Christ and it truly renders them another Christ.
