THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, before presenting Jesus' programmatic speech in Nazareth, Luke the Evangelist briefly recounts the work of evangelization. It is an activity that Jesus carries out with the power of the Holy Spirit: his Word is original because it reveals the meaning of the Scriptures; it is an authoritative Word because he commands even impure spirits with authority, and they obey him (cf. Mark 1:27). Jesus is different from the teachers of his time. For example, he doesn't open a law school but rather goes around preaching and teaching everywhere: in the synagogues, on the streets, in houses, always moving about! Jesus is also different from John the Baptist, who proclaims God's imminent judgment. Instead Jesus announces God's fatherly forgiveness.

Now let us imagine that we too enter the synagogue of Nazareth, the village where Jesus has grown up, until he is about 30 years old. What happens is an important event, which delineates Jesus' mission. He stands up to read the Sacred Scripture. He opens the scroll of the Prophet Isaiah and takes up the passage where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor" (Luke 4:18). Then, after a moment of silence filled with expectation on the part of everyone, he says, in the midst of their general amazement: "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing" (v. 21).

Evangelizing the poor: this is Jesus' mission. According to what he says, this is also the mission of the Church, and of every person baptized in the Church.

Let us ask ourselves: what does it mean to evangelize the poor? It means first of all drawing close to them, it means having the joy of serving them, of freeing them from their oppression, and all of this in the name of and with the Spirit of Christ, because he is the Gospel of God, he is the Mercy of God, he is the liberation of God, he is the One who became poor so as to enrich us with his poverty. The text of Isaiah, reinforced with little adaptations introduced by Jesus, indicates that the messianic announcement of the Kingdom of God come among us is addressed in a preferential way to the marginalized, to captives, to the oppressed. — Pope Francis, 24 January 2016

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD – 2 FEBRUARY

[The] Feast of Jesus' Presentation at the Temple forty days after his birth places before our eyes a special moment in the life of the Holy Family: Mary and Joseph, in accordance with Mosaic Law, took the tiny Jesus to the Temple of Jerusalem to offer him to the Lord (cf. Luke 2:22). Simeon and Anna, inspired by God, recognized that Child as the long-awaited Messiah and prophesied about him. We are in the presence of a mystery, both simple and solemn, in which Holy Church celebrates Christ, the Anointed One of the Father, the firstborn of new humanity.

— Benedict XVI, 2 February 2006

BLESSING OF THROATS NEXT SUNDAY

The traditional blessing of throats for the feast of Saint Blaise, 3 February, will be given after the Sunday Masses next weekend.

MASS FOR BLACK HISTORY MONTH

NEW YORK ENCOUNTER

The Encounter is a three-day, free cultural event organized by members of Communion and Liberation, featuring panel discussions, artistic performances and unique exhibits. This year's Encounter will feature a presentation on Pope Francis' vision for a new evangelization with Fr. Julián Carrón, President of the Fraternity of Communion and Liberation, Austen Ivereigh, writer and journalist, and Seán Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. These events and many others can be found at <newyorkencounter.org>. All are invited!

"Fear is such a powerful emotion for humans that when we allow it to take us over, it drives compassion right out of our hearts." — St. Thomas Aquinas
