Stewardship

Reflecting on God's Word

In Jesus' day, demonic possession was not uncommon. Mark presents Jesus as one who takes on the evil spirits, overturning their possession of this man. Jesus has declared war against the kingdom of Satan. Its hour of ascendancy is coming to an end.

The unclean spirit recognizes Jesus as one with greater power, for it asks, "Have you come to destroy us?" Then it confesses Jesus as the "Holy One of God" (Mark 1:24). Jesus will battle the forces of evil to the death, his death. But what looks like defeat for Jesus will be changed to victory, because the power of God is at work in him.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, Moses is speaking to the people before they enter the Promised Land. The entire book is his farewell speech to them. He will not go with them. He consoles them, saying that God promises to raise up a prophet like Moses and will speak through him: "I . . . will put my words into his mouth" (Deuteronomy 18:18).

Jesus is presented to us today as the prophet like Moses, who teaches with the authority of God and whose words are obeyed even by unclean spirits. There is no power on earth or beyond it greater than the power of God at work in him.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

En los tiempos de Jesús estar poseído por el demonio no era raro. Marcos presenta a Jesús como alguien que manda a los espíritus impuros, aboliendo la posesión que ellos tenían de este hombre. Jesús le ha declarado la guerra al reino de Satanás. La hora de su supremacía ha llegado a su fin.

El espíritu impuro reconoce que Jesús tiene un poder mayor, por eso es que pregunta: “¿Has venido a destruirnos?” Después confiesa saber quién es Jesús: “¡Sé quién eres: el Santo de Dios!” (Marcos 1:24). Jesús luchará hasta la muerte contra las fuerzas del maligno. Pero lo que luce como una derrota se cambiará en victoria para Jesús, porque el poder de Dios está en él.

En la primera lectura del Deuteronomio Moisés le habla al pueblo antes de entrar en la tierra prometida. El libro completo es el discurso de su último adiós al pueblo. Él no irá con ellos. Los consuela diciéndoles que Dios promete suscitar un profeta como Moisés y que hablará en nombre de Dios: “Yo . . . pondré mis palabras en su boca” (Deuteronomio 18:18).

Hoy se nos presenta a Jesús como un profeta igual que Moisés, que enseña con la autoridad de Dios y cuyas palabras son obedecidas aun por los espíritus impuros. No existe poder en la tierra ni más allá de ella que sea mayor que el poder de Dios en Jesús.

Options as We Age

A free seminar Options as We Age: An Act of Love Not a Burden, will be hosted by the Respect Life Ministry and co-sponsored with the Knights of Columbus, on Saturday, April 14, from 9 a.m. to noon in Glynn Hall at San Antonio de Padua Catholic Church. Lunch and refreshments will be served.

Various guest speakers will address several topics including the difference between board and care facilities, independent living, assisted living, memory care facilities and the pricing of each. Experts will also discuss end of life issues, advanced directives, palliative care, Alzheimer's, euthanasia and the writing of wills and trusts. There will be a question and answer period where you can address your personal questions, too.

Our goal is to help our community feel a sense of relief that they are educated on Catholic Church teachings of end of life, have viable resources and know that there are people who care deeply about them and their loved ones. Please mark your calendars! Contact Mike Cushing with any questions at (714) 404-3584 or Alicia Bausley at aliciabausley@gmail.com

Author Focus series with John Allen

Thursday, February 1, at 6:30 p.m.

Freed Theater, Christ Cathedral Campus, 13280 Chapman Avenue, Garden Grove

Join seminal Vatican commentator, author, and editor of Crux, John Allen, as he and an esteemed panel of experts discuss his new book penned with the Most. Rev. Robert Barron, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of LA and founder of Word on Fire.

The book, To Light a Fire on the Earth: Proclaiming the Gospel in a Secular Age, is the highly anticipated follow-up to Bishop Barron's hugely successful offering, Catholicism: A Journey to the Heart of the Faith.

As secularism gains influence, and increasing numbers see religion as dull and backward, Robert Barron illuminates how beautiful, intelligent, and relevant the Catholic faith is. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to delve into this book and subject with the author and an admired group of theologians.
