Pastoral Reflections

WHERE MY TREASURE IS ...

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy and thieves break in and steal. . . For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." (Mt 6:19-21)

Jesus is not being overly pious or naïve. He is not telling us simply to pray and everything will be all right. We do have to take realistic steps in order to handle the necessities of life for ourselves and anyone else for whom we are responsible.

What Jesus is talking about is a basic attitude toward life. Despite our many concerns involving money and material goods, Jesus is telling us that we should not consume all our psychic energy, worrying and fretting and growing anxious about these things. Life is too short for that.

We are called to be pilgrims journeying to a wonderful destiny. It would be a shame to waste this journey by worrying all the time about accumulating things. We are called to be givers, to go outward on our life, rather than cautiously clutching everything—our time, our talent, our treasure—to ourselves.

Ask yourself the question: Am I enjoying the adventure of being generous? Bishop Kenneth Untener (1937-2004) wrote a prayer that might help in our decision-making.

WHERE SHOULD I BEGIN. Jesus, to unclutter my life? I have yielded to temptation and filled my days with more commitments than I can comfortably manage. Help me make myself a little less busy.

FREE MY TIME.

I HAVE CROWDED MY SPACE with too much baggage: with gadgets and conveniences and possessions. Help me let go of whatever I cling to.

FREE MY HANDS.

I HAVE FILLED MY HEAD with trivial distractions: news and weather, gossip and prejudices. Help me focus on more important concerns.

FREE MY MIND.

JESUS, MY LIFE IS CLUTTERED with more idols than I realized. I have given them a reverence they do not deserve. Teach me to renounce their claim on me and end my divided allegiance.

Guide me to a simpler life and more generous service. Amen.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS PROGRAM

The free Workshop will take place on Wednesday, October 4, 7:00-8:00 PM at Our Lady of Mercy Parish Center, 50 Pascack Rd., Park Ridge. Please call the rectory office at 201-391-5315 to confirm your attendance.
