Today's Gospel

Early in his ministry, when Jesus came home with his disciples he drew a large crowd, making it impossible for them to eat. Scribes who came from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and accused him of driving out demons by the prince of demons. Jesus responded by asking: "How can Satan drive out Satan?" He pointed out that if a house is divided against itself it cannot stand.

When his relatives arrived and sent word that they wanted to see him, Jesus asked "Who are my mother and my brothers?" Then he looked at those seated around him and said: "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Today we call ourselves brothers and sisters of Christ. But do we do the will of God? That question is best answered by how we live. Do we show respect for the poor? For people of other races, other nationalities, other religions? Do we tell the truth? Pay just wages? Care for our children? Respect human life from womb to tomb?

The Gospels make it clear that love of our neighbor is the basis on which we will be judged. "As long as you did it to one of these, the least of my brothers and sisters, you did it to me."

Change in Adoration Chapel Location

Effective today, June 10, beginning at 11:00 a.m. and continuing throughout the week with the same hours as previously used, the location of our Adoration Chapel will change for the next several months. A room located to the back of the parish office building has been transformed into a "mini-chapel." There will be designated parking for adorers directly in front of the office building (former rectory). This "mini-chapel" will be closed off from the rest of the offices. There is a walk-way to the chapel door and the area will be lit at night. There is also a hand railing at the entrance and adorers will have access to a bathroom. For the combination, use the same numbers you have been using, but add a zero to the end. For questions, please contact the chairperson for your day or call the parish office at 594-3836.

Adorer needed: Thanks to adorers for filling open hours recently. However, we have a new hour open and it is on Wednesdays from 2:00 to 3:00 a.m. Please call the office at 594-3836 if you can take this hour.
