WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. Guided by the gospel and the examples of parish members, newcomers can find their place in the RCIA community of believers and discover their own relationship with Christ. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

BULLETIN: If you have information that you would like to place in the bulletin (community news, society/social news, etc.), please have it at the parish office no later than Tuesday morning.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: Forty-five minutes before Saturday evening Mass or by appointment.

SHUT-INS: If someone you know is unable to attend Mass but would like to receive Communion or receive a copy of our weekly bulletin, please contact the parish office.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Visits are made on a regular basis.
PLEASE NOTE: The new privacy laws limit the amount of information that we receive from the hospitals or nursing/convalescent homes. It is necessary that family or friends notify us of these admittances.

HANDICAPPED SEATING AREA: Please note that the front pew nearest to the side door is reserved to accommodate those who have need due to disability. Please be kind enough to leave this pew available for that purpose.

PARKING LOT: [St. Mary's] Please keep the emergency lane in front of the church clear at all times. It is essential that vehicles are able to get in and out of the parking lot in case of an emergency. Please adhere to the parking spaces as delineated. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners when you are backing up or turning to park or to exit the parking lot. There is ample parking on the upper level and supplemental parking on the side of the church.

FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

My Brothers and Sisters,
This past weekend I was able to once again participate in the Endless Mountain Men's Retreat from Nativity Church with some men from Wyoming Valley area. Whenever someone finds out I was on Retreat, they ask me how it was. But asking that of someone who has a difficult time being quiet is the wrong question. A better question for me would be to ask how I did at being still and not talking or, better yet, how anyone got me to agree to go to this type of Retreat. The answer is simple - I am required to but I am not required to enjoy it.

This has been a constant struggle for me since I began training for the Diaconate. I have always struggled going away from home on overnights. I don't do time outs well. I do eventually settle in and I always enjoy the company, especially like-minded men who also dislike being away from home.

Sister Theresa and Father Pio gave the Retreat and opened the first session with the question, "What are you?" Not who but what. This caused me to think about what I was all weekend. Like most of us, I am many things to those I am close to and this is what I came up with for my short list:

1. I am a man.
2. I am a son.
3. I am a brother.
4. I am a husband.
5. I am a father.
6. I am a grandfather.
7. I am a friend.
8. I am a Catholic.
9. I am a Deacon.

I could come up with a lot more, but I am sure you get the idea. You and I are a lot of things to a lot of people. We wear different hats, as they say. It's easy to understand why I would think about this all weekend. For me, the constant is that I am a Catholic. As a son, I was raised by a faithful mother who instilled in me the beliefs of our Church. I am a brother, husband, father, etc. All of these are connected for me to my simple Catholic upbringing that led me down my path and to all of the things that I am today. Being a Catholic is what motivates me.

So ask yourself, what motivates you? What are you? You may be surprised by your answer.

May God Bless,

Deacon Ray

POPE FRANCIS QUOTES: The equal dignity of men and women makes us rejoice to see old forms of discrimination disappear, and within families there is a growing reciprocity. The Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, appeared six times to the children – Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta – near the town of Fatima, Portugal between May 13 and October 13, 1917. During a time of war and turmoil, she told them that she had been sent by God with a message that Heaven would grant peace to all the world if her requests for prayer, reparation and consecration were heard and obeyed. The apparitions culminated in an inexplicable spectacle on October 13, when 70,000 onlookers witnessed the sun spinning like a ball in the sky. Space is limited, so it is recommended that you call as soon as possible for reservations. All arrangements and reservations are to be made through TRAVELWORLD. Why We Celebrate Memorial Day A Lesson in Service and Sacrifice

by Tom McGrath

What we remember—and honor—on Memorial Day is heroic sacrifice. We acknowledge those who nobly gave of themselves, even unto death, for a purpose they believed was greater than themselves. Since the days just following the end of the Civil War, Americans have gathered in late May to honor those who died in military service to their country. In the spirit of the day, we can also recall, honor, and pray for all those we know who have lived lives of service and sacrifice for the good of others.

Sacrifice is more than suffering

One definition of sacrifice is "the destruction or surrender of something for the sake of something else." Though suffering is always a part of sacrifice to some extent, seeking suffering for its own sake is not sacrifice. Sacrifice implies giving up one good for a higher good. For example, a child gives up a day of play to visit an ailing grandparent, or a parent sacrifices watching a favorite television program to help a child who is struggling with homework. Life in the family is full of opportunities for service and sacrifice.

Jesus: the perfect example of sacrifice

What counts in this definition is the phrase "for the sake of something else." Is that "something else" worthy of the sacrifice we make? True sacrifice is always at the service of life. We learn this from Jesus, who made the ultimate sacrifice and remained faithful through his Passion, death, and Resurrection. Jesus' greater purpose for this sacrifice was our well-being—that we might have life and have it abundantly.

This Memorial Day, as we remember all who have served and sacrificed on our behalf, let us not forget what Jesus was willing to give up for us—and the lessons we can learn from that perfect example of sacrifice.

Father, we could never thank our military men and women enough for their courageous service and sacrifice to our country and its people. We lift up our voices to express gratefulness and honor to these military troops both from the past and present. Show us ways in our communities, churches, and families to thank and love them better. Keep and protect these heroes and their families, in the powerful name of Jesus.

Freedom Is Not Free

I watched the flag pass by one day.
 It fluttered in the breeze.

A young Marine saluted it,
 and then he stood at ease.

I looked at him in uniform
 So young, so tall, so proud,
 With hair cut square and eyes alert
 He'd stand out in any crowd.

I thought how many men like him
 Had fallen through the years.

How many died on foreign soil?
 How many mothers' tears?

How many pilots' planes shot down?
 How many died at sea?

How many foxholes were soldiers' graves?
 No, freedom isn't free.

I heard the sound of TAPS one night,
 When everything was still
 I listened to the bugler play
 And felt a sudden chill.

I wondered just how many times
 That TAPS had meant "Amen,"
 When a flag had draped a coffin
 Of a brother or a friend.

I thought of all the children,
 Of the mothers and the wives,
 Of fathers, sons and husbands
 With interrupted lives.

I thought about a graveyard
 At the bottom of the sea
 Of unmarked graves in Arlington.
 No, freedom isn't free.
