

Filled With the Holy Spirit!

“ Then there appeared to them tongues of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.” (Acts 2:3-4). Come, Holy Spirit! Fill our hearts! The Holy Spirit is God’s love! The Holy Spirit is the fire of God’s love! Jesus tells us: “ I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!” (Luke 12:49). Fire it up! This has been the theme of our Lenten Parish Family Mission, which just began on the Second Sunday of Lent. The Holy Spirit does not descend upon us only Pentecost. It descends upon us every day of our lives. We just have to open our hearts! This is what God invites us to do every day in this special season of Lent, a time for prayer, a time to get closer to God.

As we have entered into our second week of Lent, we have been reminded of the power of God’s love in our lives. Like Jesus, we too can be transfigured, we too can be transformed (Matthew 17: 1-9). Like Peter, James and John, we too can hear God’s voice.: “This is My beloved son, with whom I am well pleased: listen to Him.” We too are God’s beloved sons and daughters. Throughout the 40 days of Lent, we are all invited to feel God’s transforming love. We are all invited to listen to Jesus, to come and encounter Him! For the many of you who were able to participate in the first day of our Parish Family Mission, you may have experienced that special presence of the Holy Spirit. (I am writing this column on the morning of the second day, as freezing rain is covering Waldorf; this morning, trees have been falling down under the weight of the ice.) I, for one, could feel the joy, peace, and love of the Holy Spirit last night! I will never forget our many children coming close to the altar to adore Jesus in the exposed Blessed Sacrament! It was a beautiful moment for our entire parish! Like little children, we all want to come close to Jesus! Like the woman who had been bleeding for 12 years, we all want to touch Jesus and be healed. As we come close to Jesus, we can hear Jesus’ words: “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.” (Luke 8:43-48).

The ongoing changes in the weather forecast (Will we have one foot of snow? Or sleet? Or freezing rain?) remind us that God is in charge! Many of you were asking whether the parish mission would take place. My answer was simple: “If God wants it to happen, it will happen!” God blessed us with a beautiful first day of parish mission. Tonight, God willing, we will have our second day focusing on “Freedom in Christ” and ending with our Parish Lenten Penance Service. We still expect 15 priests to show up! Some of them have already let me know that they will be here, depending on our road conditions. May we all walk and drive safely today!

I want to express my appreciation to all our staff and all our volunteers who have made this family parish mission a reality! Special thanks go to the Knights of Columbus and Mary’s Helping Hands who generously gave of their time to prepare a wonderful dinner for the first evening of the mission. Close to 200 people packed our Social Hall! Special thanks also to our Libation Music Group that provided joyful music while we were eating! Special thanks also to the members of the Youth Group for their generous assistance! Thanks to all the parents who came in large number with their children and friends! And thanks to Dan and Caroline for leading us into a parish family mission filled with the Holy Spirit! May the Holy Spirit continue to fill our hearts
