Dear parishioners

Greetings and peace from Fr. David MMI, I would like to thank you for your support and concern towards me for the past five months. It is always nice being with you. It is time to thank God for his blessing. I wish that you all have beautiful celebration for thanks giving. Thanking God for his benevolence and one another for their help and support is an expression of our duty towards God and one another. Greatness of human being lies in thanking when favors received and asking sorry when mistakes committed. Today I thank God for having given me you all. I have a request to you that whenever I speak of concepts like divorce, abortion and etc. if you feel that my way of expression or opinion disturbs or makes you upset, please free to come and express your opinion to me. I am ready to learn and change. Once again I wish you to have wonderful thanksgiving.

REFLECTION ON SUNDAY'S READINGS

Scripture lessons summarized: The readings invite us to focus our attention on the threefold coming of Jesus: 1) His first coming according to the flesh, as Redeemer. 2) His second coming, either at our death, or at the end of time and the world, which will bring our salvation to completion. 3) His coming into our lives each time we step forward in genuine Christian living. Today's Gospel, taken from Mark (AD 69), offered hope to early Christians persecuted by the Roman Emperor Nero, reminding them of Jesus' words about his glorious return to earth with great power and glory as Judge to gather and reward his elect. Daniel and Mark continue to remind us that God will ensure that the righteous will survive the ordeal and will find a place with Him. Through the parable of the fig tree, Jesus warns us all to read the "signs of the time," reminding us that we must be ever prepared to give an account of our lives to Jesus when he comes in glory as our Judge, because we cannot know "either the day or the hour" of his Second Coming.

Life messages: 1) Let us recognize the "second coming" of Jesus in our daily lives through everyday occurrences, always remembering that Jesus comes without warning. But let us not get frightened at the thought of Christ's Second Coming because he is with us every day in the Holy Eucharist, in the Holy Bible and in our worshipping communities. We will be able to welcome him in his Second Coming as long as we faithfully do the will of God daily by serving our brothers and sisters, by recognizing Christ's presence in them, and by being reconciled with God and with our brothers and sisters every day.

2) We need to "learn the lesson from the fig tree." This means that we are to watch and wait in a state of readiness. Instead of worrying about the end time events, we are asked to live every day of our lives loving God living in others, by our committed service to them with sacrificial agape love.
