School Profile

“Our Mother of Peace Elementary School strives to achieve academic excellence taught through the words and actions of Christ”. Established in 1914 the school is a community of faith, which embraces the sacraments of the Catholic Church and promotes the importance of academic learning, the value of service, and the spirit of charity. We currently provide quality instruction and educational resources to children in grades Pre K – 8th grade.

Our Mother of Peace strengthens the Christian way of life by teaching and promoting prayer and worship as part of everyday life.
