This weekend, January 12-13, the Archdiocese of Washington will take up a collection for Church Missions within the United States. This collection supports mission dioceses in this country that are unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship, and service without outside help. It may also give grants to other dioceses in the U.S. for particular projects, and to organizations and religious communities engaged in missionary work. Second, it provides vulnerable Black and Native American communities with funds for supporting and strengthening evangelization programs that would otherwise be in danger of disappearing among these communities.

Thank you for your generosity.

PARISH LIFE

Last weekend, Rev. David L. Delich, O.P. spoke to the parish about a ministry, Food For The Poor, that provides direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. For those who still would like to contribute, envelopes are available on the tables in the church.

Thanks to all who contributed to the Forestville Pregnancy Center, Baby Bottle Campaign. Your contributions will go a long way towards helping them on their mission to educate, empower and provide for healthy choices about pregnancy and sexuality while preserving and nurturing the lives of unborn babies before and after birth.

A new year has begun and the rectory calendar needs to be updated. If your ministry is planning any activity in this year, be sure that it has been added to the Church calendar to avoid conflict.

Dr. Martin Luther King Annual Tribute - In 1967 at Stanford University, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. described an America with "a daily ugliness ... that transforms the ebullience of hope into the fatigue of despair." His words remind us that this "other America" still exists for too many today. On Sunday, January 20, at 4:00 pm, join special guest Ms. Cathy Hughes, Founder and Chairperson of Urban One, the largest African-American owned and operated broadcast company in the nation, for this annual event at the Washington National Cathedral 3101 Wisconsin Ave., NW Washington, DC 20016-5098.

Dr. King's words will be amplified by performances by the Howard University Choir, Children of the Gospel, and the Cathedral Band and dance by Andile Ndlovu of the Washington Ballet. With participation and sponsorship from Advancement Project, a next-generation, multi-racial civil rights organization, we will shine a light on all Americans, and cling to the faith that, as King says, will "speed up the day when all of God's children ... will be able to join hands and live together all over this great nation," for more information call (202) 537.6200.
