All You Who Labor and are Burdened

I am pleased to announce the completion of our adoration chapel here at St. Augustine. We will celebrate the formal enthronement of the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel this Friday, February 22 at 7:00 p.m., after which the chapel will be open and available 16 hours each day from 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. The chapel can be easily accessed from outside through the courtyard.

Msgr. Marin, of happy memory, had long been planning to inaugurate this chapel, and he was in the later stages of its preparation when he fell ill. I am very happy to see his vision become a reality.

Jesus said to the crowds in the Gospel of Matthew: “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” (Mt 12:28) Our adoration chapel will be for us a privileged place of quiet and prayer, where we can come before the Lord in silent worship, to present to him our fervent prayers, to listen to his voice speaking to us in the stillness of our hearts, and simply to be with him who is our God and King.

Eucharistic adoration is a praiseworthy and fruitful devotion, ever recommended and extolled by the Church and her Saints. Indeed, as Pope St. Paul VI reminded us: "How great is the value of conversation with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, for there is nothing more consoling on earth, nothing more efficacious for advancing along the road of holiness!"

The Holy Eucharist, as the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the “source and summit” of our Christian life. It is the ever-flowing fount from which all graces come, and it is the highest and most perfect expression of our worship and adoration of God. Once again quoting Paul VI: "Christ is reserved in our churches as the spiritual center of the heart of the community, the universal Church and all humanity, since within the veil of the species, Christ is contained, the invisible heart of the Church, the Redeemer of the world, the center of all hearts, by him all things are and of whom we exist."

Come to our new chapel and spend some time with the Lord in silent adoration. And please join me in praying that this chapel will be a source of great blessings to our parish, bring consolation and peace to all who visit, draw us all closer to Christ and give glory to God.

We have drawn spiritual and academic life from our parish and Catholic schools. What return will we make of these gifts? As the good steward of the Gospel, shall we give to God sufficient return for our gifts? Consider a life-culminating gift through your will or trust. “Blessed are you when people hate you,...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man.” (Luke 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn’t want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time, the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

ABCD UPDATE:

Why Should I Give to the ABCD?

The word “Catholic” means “universal,” and our faith cares for all our sisters and brothers regardless of the parish in which they worship. One should give to the Archbishop’s Charities and Development Drive (ABCD) because there are certain ministries and services that cannot be provided by a parish, but only by a diocese. Can a parish recruit, educate, and form seminarians? Can a parish pay for a pension and needed medical care for our retired clergy? Can a parish support a diaconate program and lay ministries? Can a parish support schools and other parishes facing financial distress or an unexpected emergency? Some people may say that as long as we support our parish, we should not be concerned with the needs of other parishes, schools, recruitment, education and formation of our future clergy, and forming our youth and young adults in our faith beyond our own parish. Through the ABCD, the archdiocese of Miami is able to carry out these ministries which are only possible through the generosity of our parishioners like you. At the entrance of the church, as well in the pews, you can find envelopes to make a contribution or you can go to our website and donate online. Thank you!
