Pentecost Sunday

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

Pentecost Sunday

“When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit”

This 3rd most important day of the year is the full revelation of the Blessed Trinity. God is love (1 Jn. 4:16), and love is his first gift (CCC 733). God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. (Rom. 5:5). The first effect of this love is forgiveness. He then gives us the 1st fruits of our inheritance: the very life of the Holy Trinity. Throughout our lives and permanently in eternal life, he makes us bear the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

St. Augustine's prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy. Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy. Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy. Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

MARRIAGE MINUTE- One of the gifts given by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost was the grace for the Apostles to speak in different languages so that the Gospel of God’s love could be heard by all people. This act was truly a miracle! We married couples can receive a similar grace to communicate love more effectively. One of the very practical ways we can enhance our married relationship is to learn to express our love for our spouse in their preferred “love language.” According to Gary Chapman, author of “The Five Love Languages,” spouses will increase their level of happiness within their marriage by learning to communicate more effectively through Gifts, Quality Time, Acts of Service, Words of Affirmation, or Physical Touch depending on the preferred “love language.” What is your spouse’s love language? This and other topics will be explored at the Everyday In Love Date Night Workshops this June. Register at www.archkck.org/everyday or see other offerings at www.JoyfulMarriageproject.com.

“I PLACE MUCH OF MY HOPE FOR THE FUTURE IN MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER”.

(St. John Paul II) Your honeymoon was a special time. Wherever you went, the things you saw and did were secondary. Just being together was most important. The Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend has the same focus. The Weekend centers entirely on your relationship. It is a positive, simple common sense, private experience between you and your spouse, that revitalizes marriage by helping you to see again those loving qualities in each other that you may be taking for granted. The next Weekend in Kansas City is July 28-30, 2017. For more information or to apply, please visit our website: www.wwme4youandme.org or call Tony & Barb Zimmerman, 816-741-4066 or email tonybarbz@prodigy.net

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

Jesus' gift of the Holy Spirit was the greatest gift he could have left the Church. Mary and the other disciples waited and prayed patiently for the filling of the Holy Spirit. Though they did not fully understand the significance of the Holy Spirit prior to his indwelling, they knew that it was a gift from the Father and the Son, and powerfully important. So they waited and prayed. This Pentecost Sunday it is important to evaluate our own hunger and longing to be filled by the Holy Spirit. Do we want him to fill our life? Do we want his influence in us enough to regularly pray and ask him to fill our lives? Do we want the effects which his filling will bring, the positive changes in our life? Or are we satisfied to simply have the assurance that we have been made children of God, and beyond that would prefer not to be bothered? These are difficult questions, our response to them is almost as important as was our initial decision to respond in faith to Jesus. How we welcome the Holy Spirit in our life will make all the difference in how we experience and enjoy the Christian life. Fr. Frank P. DeSiano, C.S.P., in the book Presenting the Catholic Faith explains why the Holy Spirit is so important to our lives as believers. "The Holy Spirit did not get revealed in the same way as Jesus. God is revealed in Jesus in a human life itself. The Spirit, taking the form of fire or dove used these only as symbolic images to dramatize his presence and power. (Acts 2:3; Matthew 3:16) For that is how the Spirit was revealed, ultimately: as presence and power in Christian life . . . "The Spirit was the force by which they lived, by which they continued to do the deeds of Jesus, by which they were able to bring to birth the ideal that Jesus embodied. The Spirit helped them speak, helped them pray, helped them heal, helped them forgive, helped them serve, helped them be faithful. For on their own, they could do nothing but live as they always had." It is not an exaggeration to say that the Holy Spirit is the "vital force" that makes the Christian life "Christian," and not simply another nice life. He not only provides the power to overcome that which holds us back from living a holy life, he provides the gifts and power to far surpass that which we could accomplish on our own. As we contemplate the Holy Spirit's presence in our lives it is important that we recognize that his presence is a unifying presence and not simply an individualistic presence. By that I mean that though he gives gifts to us individually and does for each of us all of those things of which Fr. DeSiano reminds us, he does those things for us because we are part of a whole, the Church, his visible body on earth. In the Scripture passages we will hear at mass this Sunday, the focus is on the unifying presence of the Holy Spirit. They show how he took the diversity of people and melded them into one body. How the Holy Spirit enables the many members to function for the common good of the one body. When we amplify our individual experience of the Holy Spirit to the exclusion of the Body we do him a disservice. His abiding presence also provides companionship as we go through life. Often his presence is manifest through the physical presence of another member of the Body in whom he dwells. With the Holy Spirit we are never, never, ever, alone; God is with us, indwelling us.

Attention Parish Families

The Altar Society will again do the "Silent Auction" at the annual church bazaar in August, in lieu of the Country Store. Last year the project brought in $800. Let's make even more this year! Get on your thinking caps for great ideas for individual items or basket themes. Some families may want to go together to make an even "bigger" theme if you like. Get your ideas to the Altar Society so that we can be even more organized this year! Thanks for your support for a great cause, our parish community.
