A Mother's Day Message

I smile when I contrast the Hollywood stereotype of the angry mother in labor spewing insults at her husband for causing her the pain of childbirth when I remember my wife, Amber's response during the birth of our 3rd child, Colleen, only 13 months after our 2nd child, Rachael. Moments after Colleen's arrival, our nurse sincerely tried to reassure my wife that her pain was over and she would never have to endure it again, to which Amber quickly quipped, "I can't wait for the next baby that God gives to me." God was listening and gave us 3 more!

I shake my head in awe that for 29 years now my sweet bride has built her life upon giving herself away as a gift to our family. Like our Mother, Mary, her life has been an endless series of "YES" responses. To the hundreds of requests each day which she has responded "YES" to "wash the feet" of our family and others, she has indeed made a lasting impression. Now, those same children whose mother welcomed them with such enthusiasm are crafting their own greatest hopes and career paths around the primacy of the gift of holy marriage and the blessing of parenthood.

Although I'm not so young anymore, my eyes still mist when I remember running off of the school bus each day knowing that my own mom would be sitting at the kitchen table waiting for us. When Mom passed away this past July, all of us kids recalled this vivid image and mused that now Mom would be waiting for us in Heaven. Strangely enough, that has not been my experience since her "departure." I have actually never felt my mom closer to me in my life. Now, rather than waiting for me, I feel her walking with me every moment until I make it home.

The salvation of the world began with Mother Mary's "YES", and the "YES" of every mother since only renews Christ's victory. A mother's love remains unapologetic, undefeated, and unending.

Brian Dudley, Parishioner

Happy Mother's Day!

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Deacon Bob

My father died early in the morning on November 13, 2004. I remember sitting dumbstruck next to his lifeless body. My father was the wisdom figure of the family, which included not only my own nuclear family but all his nieces and nephews and their spouses and children. They would call from all over the United States seeking his wisdom and knowledge, and now he was gone. I was not only dumbstruck by the loss of my father, but by the realization that my role in the family had undergone a dramatic change. I was no longer a "kid", anymore. The mantle of leadership and the wisdom, that hopefully accompanies leadership, had been passed on to me. There are many people who have experienced this same dramatic change in their lives as their parents died. The one question I believe we all ask is, "Are we up to the task of being the leaders of our families?"

I am sure the apostles were thinking similar thoughts as they watched Jesus ascend to the Father. Jesus entrusted to them the mission he had of proclaiming the Good News to people everywhere. I love the reaction of the angel in the Acts of the Apostles who basically tells the apostles to quit gawking at the empty sky into which Jesus ascended and get busy fulfilling the mission of Jesus. As we hear in the Gospel account, the apostles did exactly that, going forth to preach the Good News to everyone.

As Jesus entrusted his mission to the apostles, so the apostles have entrusted the same mission to generation after generation up to our present time. Today the angel from the Acts of the Apostles tells us to quit standing around and get busy proclaiming the Good News in word and in action. This mission is not isolated to just a few "holy people" but is entrusted to all who have been baptized.

In a recent conversation with my cousin, Kathy, I was touched to hear that my dad, when he was alive, often spoke highly of me to her, saying that I was his twin. May Jesus say the same of us as we continue his mission to our world.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS*SWS STAFF SHOWCASE*Kelly Moeding ~ Title I

Kelly Moeding attended

Catholic schools growing up and graduated from The College of St. Benedict in '99 with a degree in Elementary Education. After that, she was a 3rd grade classroom teacher at Holy Trinity in South St. Paul. Five years later, when she and her husband (Jess) moved to New Prague, she was hired as a 2nd grade teacher at St. Hubert's in Chanhasen. After five more years of teaching and a growing family of her own, she took a few years off of full-time teaching to be a "mom". Kelly & Jess have two girls that both attend SWS. Taylor is in 6th grade and Lauren is in 3rd grade. Eventually, she really began to miss teaching in general, but needed something part-time. This is Kelly's fifth year teaching Title I, and she thoroughly enjoys working with the kids at SWS! The variety of learning abilities and subject matters she is required to teach keeps her on her toes! She also enjoys being able to see her girls at work now and again. When she is not at school, she can usually be found at the "office" helping her husband run their construction company, Xpand, Inc. Between those duties, running kids, and managing a household, she has to work hard for her "free time". During her "free time" she enjoys gardening, walking her yellow lab, Hazel, camping with her family, family vacations, snowboarding, hiking, biking, fishing, boating, and being outside! Kelly's family is very busy and active! In fact, they are looking forward to a 12-day trip to Yellowstone in just two weeks! Teaching has always been and will always be a passion for Kelly. She feels like she has struck a perfect balance teaching and working at SWS in this role!

WESTERN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
St. John's & St. Scholastica*Our Lady of Good Help CCW

Our Lady of Good Help Council of Catholic Women met Monday evening at Koenig Hall in Union Hill. A birthday gift will be sent to our seminarian, Evin Huebl. We unanimously agreed to send a donation to our archdiocese "sister parish" in Kitui, Kenya, Africa, supporting a school for girls. Traditionally, girls do not attend school in Kitui. New Officers were installed. Reelected Treasurer, Noreen Giesen. Reelected Secretary, Lois Giesen. Incoming President, Cindy Jirak. Thank you to outgoing president, Mary Nytes, for leading us through a very busy year. Potluck supper and many door prizes of homemade wine and honey topped off a wonderful evening!

A few words from Deacon Bob...

Congratulations to Mallory Bastyr, Kyle Brezina, Samantha Hoy, Evy Lambrecht and Mylah Witt who received Holy Communion for the first time last Sunday at the 10 am Mass at St. John the Evangelist. I would also like to congratulate my grandson, Oliver, whose first Holy Communion at St. Wenceslaus I missed because it was at the same time as St. John's. May these children grow deeper in communion with our Lord.

My great thanks to Mary Carol Wolf and Julie Paur for the wonderful ministry they did as catechists, preparing our first communicants for Holy Communion. I remember Sister Angeline SSND often saying to my class, "You will have another jewel in your crown in Heaven." Mary Carol and Julie will have so many jewels in their crowns they won't be able to lift them.

VBS and Summer Stretch are teaming up this year to help new parents in need and hosting a collection drive. Then, on June 28th, Summer Stretch is going to Second Stork to pack these layettes and diapers for newborns and their families.

Why Second Stork?

Each year, thousands of new parents across Minnesota are stretched to bring their baby home from the hospital with even the most basic supplies such as a safe place to sleep, diapers, wet wipes, clothing, receiving blankets, and other essential items. Founded in 2009, Second Stork is a Minnesota non-profit that fulfills this real, immediate need by providing those critical items free of charge with no strings attached. To learn more about Second Stork, contact Pamela or Laura in the FF office or go to <https://secondstork.org/>.

Items in critical need now are:

- * Sleepers - one-piece, footed sleepers in sizes Preemie (P), Newborn (NB), or 0-3 months (size 3 months is OK too, but 3-6 months is too big)
- * Onesies - one-piece t-shirt/bodysuit in sizes Preemie (P), Newborn (NB), or 0-3 months (size 3 months is OK too, but 3-6 months is too big)
- * Receiving Blankets - light blankets, cotton or flannel only.
- * Diapers - as you can imagine, are also a critical part of the items provided to families in need. Second Stork provides diaper packs in addition to the layettes. We need sizes - Preemie, Size 1, or Newborn.

All donated items must be new as hospitals cannot distribute used items. Only the sizes specified above should be collected, as these items are essential for the first 30 days; many infants wear these items home from the hospital.
