WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

We would like to extend a warm welcome this week to these new parishioners at St. Timothy:
 Kerry Perrien

GRANDPARENTS

HOW CHILDREN PERCEIVE THEIR GRANDPARENTS

1. She was in the bathroom, putting on her makeup under the watchful eyes of her young granddaughter, as she'd done many times before. After she applied her lipstick and started to leave, the little one said, "But Gramma, you forgot to kiss the toilet paper good-bye!" I'll probably never put lipstick on again without thinking about kissing the toilet paper good-bye.
2. My young grandson called the other day to wish me happy birthday. He asked me how old I was, and I told him, 80. My grandson was quiet for a moment, and then he asked, "Did you start at 1?"
3. After putting her grandchildren to bed, a grandmother changed into old slacks and a droopy blouse and proceeded to wash her hair. As she heard the children getting more and more rambunctious, her patience grew thin. Finally, she threw a towel around her head and stormed into their room, putting them back to bed with stern warnings. As she left the room, she heard the three-year-old say with a trembling voice, "Who was THAT?"
4. A grandmother was telling her little granddaughter what her own childhood was like "We used to skate outside on a pond. I had a swing made from a tire; it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods." The little girl was wide-eyed, taking this all in. At last she said, "I sure wish I'd gotten to know you sooner!"
5. My grandson was visiting one day when he asked, "Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?" I mentally polished my halo and I said, "No, how are we alike?" "You're both real old," he replied.
6. A little girl was diligently pounding away on her grandfather's word processor. She told him she was writing a story. "What's it about?" he asked. "I don't know," she replied. "I can't read."
7. I didn't know if my granddaughter had learned her colors yet, so I decided to test her. I would point out something and ask what color it was. She would tell me, and she was always correct. It was fun for me, so I continued. At last, she headed for the door, saying, "Grandma, I think you should try figuring out some of this stuff for yourself!"
8. When my grandson Billy and I entered our vacation cabin, we kept the lights off until we were inside to keep from attracting pesky insects. Still, a few fireflies followed us in. Noticing them before I did, Billy whispered, "It's no use, Grandpa. Now the mosquitoes are coming after us with flashlights."

9. When my grandson asked me how old I was, I teasingly replied, "I'm not sure." "Look in your underwear, Grandpa," he advised. "Mine says I'm 4 to 6."
10. A second grader came home from school and said to her grandmother, "Grandma, guess what? We learned how to make babies today." The grandmother, more than a little surprised, tried to keep her cool. "That's interesting," she said, warily. "How do you make babies?" "It's easy," replied the girl. "You just change 'y' to 'i' and add 'es'."
11. "Give me a sentence about a public servant," instructed the teacher during a lesson. One small boy wrote: "The fireman came down the ladder pregnant." The teacher took the lad aside to correct him. "Don't you know what pregnant means?" she asked. "Sure," said the young boy confidently. "It means carrying a child."
12. A grandfather was delivering his grandchildren to their home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children started discussing the dog's duties. "They use him to keep crowds back," offered one child. "No," said another, "he's just for good luck" A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."
13. A 6-year-old was asked where his grandma lived. "Oh," he said, "she lives at the airport, and when we want her, we just go get her. Then, when we're done having her visit, we take her back to the airport."
14. Grandpa is the smartest man on earth! He teaches me good things, but I don't get to see him enough to get as smart as him!
15. My Grandparents are funny. When they bend over, you hear gas leaks, and they blame their dog. Share this with other Grandparents. Oh, heck, just share it with everyone. It'll get them grinning!

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

OPPORTUNITY TO VOLUNTEER FOR A SPECIAL MINISTRY

The Altar Linen Ministry is in need of several volunteers especially during the Lenten/Easter Season. Altar Linen Ministry is one of our least visual ministries but one of the most important ministries of the church. Members of this ministry ensure that the linens are washed with the same respectful care and handling as the sacred vessels. If you are able to assist with this ministry, training will be provided and you would be fitted into the schedule while accommodating your schedule. You can volunteer as often or as little as you want. If you are looking for a ministry that you can do at home... then this ministry is for you.

LOOK FOR THIS TODAY AT MASS –
THE SECOND READING

Following the Responsorial Psalms, we listen to the second reading. This reading is taken from the New Testament that are not Gospels- the letters of the apostles, the Acts, and the visionary Book of Revelation. In the second reading we often see glimpses of the problems and the progress of the Church's first generation. They struggled to be faithful to the Gospel amid a sometimes – hostile pagan culture. They knew the pain of estrangement from family members and friends who misunderstood them. They disagreed with one another about practical matters, even related to the Church. They rejoiced at the conversion of friends who were sinners. They mourned when fellow Christians were backsliding into immorality. They loved the Mass, too. From the second reading, we come to know that our fellowship is not just with Christians in our parish, or in our time. It is catholic - that is, universal. It embraces all people of the world, at every period of the Church's history. We are still living in the Church described in the apostle's letters. We want to be faithful, as that of the first generation was, even if we should undergo persecution. WE are dependent upon the witness of these ancestors in the faith. And so, when the lector announces the second reading as "The Word of the Lord," we respond with grateful voices: "Thanks be to God!"

VENERABLE FULTON SHEEN SPEAKS . . .

"To every Christian . . . there comes a supreme moment when he must choose between temporal pleasure and eternal freedom. In order to save our souls, we must often run the risk of losing our bodies." Have a fruitful Lent.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT
ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 516 (CCC): Christ's whole earthly life – his words and deeds, his silences and sufferings, indeed his manner of being and speaking – is Revelation of the Father.

Reflection:

God's revelation of himself, stretched out across all of human history, taking many and varied forms, reaches its greatest intensity in the Incarnation. In Jesus, the incarnate Word, the Father speaks most simply and powerfully of who he is.

(Source: "Day by Day With the Catechism", Catholic Publishing Co, 2006)

RENEWAL PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, You are the Savior of my life!
 With my whole heart I desire to live in Your radiant light.
 I wish to enjoy forever the fellowship of Your saints.
 I firmly reject the dominion of darkness and beg You by the power of Your blood shed on the cross to forgive my sins and cleanse me from all my guilt.
 I promise with Your gracious help to follow You ever more closely,
 trusting only in Your abundant mercy.
 Stir up the gifts of the Holy Spirit in my soul that I may cry out with You, "Abba, Father!"
 Grant that I may find inspiration and strength through prayer, that I may experience Your abiding presence in the Sacraments,
 that I may be guided by the truth of Your Word which comes to us in Scripture and Tradition.
 Help me to forgive and serve others
 as You have forgiven and served me.
 Help me to use the gifts You have given me to build up Your one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. In all my trials, help me to trust that You will never abandon me.
 Lord Jesus, when my life on earth is complete,
 send Your Holy Mother Mary to lead me to the eternal home of our Heavenly Father together with St. Joseph and all the Saints.
 I ask all this in Your holy and glorious Name
 Who live and reign forever and ever.
 Amen.

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.
