The Story of Jairus' daughter is one of many miracle stories about Jesus healing a seriously ill child at the bequest of a parent. It follows upon yesterday's account of the healing of the servant of the centurion. In some stories of healing, Jesus tells the adult to go home because their faith has already brought about the healing. In the case of Jairus', Jesus drops everything and goes to his home. Jesus says to the child, Talitha kum, (Little girl, stand up). The healing could have been done at a distance but touch makes a difference. Like so much in life, personal contact in itself brings about much healing. (Liturgy Training Publications Daily Prayer 2018)

GREAT FOOD
Who will be in the Dunking Booth??
GAMES, PRIZES, FUN FOR ALL!!

The Knights of Columbus are helping to raise the funds for the Pregnancy Support Center's purchase of an Ultrasound Machine. To move forward with this, there is a need of a Pro-Life Medical Doctor who can check over the sonograms which will be sent via computer. This volunteer assistance will take only a couple of hours a month. If you are a doctor or know a doctor who would be willing to do this, please contact Diane Caliendo, Executive Director, at (845) 340-7355. Thank you for caring about the sanctity of human life.

Why Do We Exchange a Sign of Peace At Mass?

In the middle of the second century, the Sign of Peace occurred just before the Presentation of the Gifts. It is still in that place in the Churches of Milan (Ambrosian Rite) and Spain (Mozarabic Rite). However, by the third century, the Roman Rite had moved the Sign of Peace to after the Lord's Prayer. It was deemed appropriate in that place, since St. Augustine understood the Sign of Peace as related to the petition, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." In this place it also links being in communion with the Body of Christ (the Church) and receiving the Body of Christ in the Eucharist.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

THE LOOK OF LOVE

What does love look like?

It has feet to go to the poor and needy.

It has eyes to see misery and want.

It has ears to hear the signs and sorrows of others.

--St. Augustine
