Pastor's Report:

ASA will be adding an assistant principal.

Fiesta de Mayo: Each parish will see a profit of $10,500.

Bishop Griffin Center feasibility study to be completed July 3 and submitted to the diocese July 5. We are hopeful that Bishop Cambell approves the plans before his retirement is submitted on August 4. A Capital Campaign will need to be launched with the affected parishes, as well as a solicitation of funds from businesses and other sources.

ALPHA kicks off September 12. Father David Sizemore will preach about it at all Masses on August 18-19.

We will also participate in "Bridging the Racial Divide," at the end of July or the beginning of August. It is sponsored by Black Catholic Ministries. Virginia Hardy is our contact.

The annual missionary appeal will occur August 11 and 12 with Father Kevin.

New Business: Cathy Adamescu asked about having special collections electronically deducted the way weekly collections are. Father explained why that is currently not the case but agreed to look into how it could be done in the future.

Jeff and Saul were applauded for having served two terms each on council.

Closing Prayer:

Next Meeting: September 25, 2018 at 7 p.m.
